

A259 Brenzett to Rye resurfacing – Monday 22 May to Friday 4 August 2023

We'll soon be carrying out essential resurfacing work on the A259 between Brenzett and Rye. We're also going to take the opportunity to replace and improve the road signs along the road.

We'll carry out our work in stages, starting on the evening of Monday 22 May and finishing on the morning of Saturday 5 August.

To minimise disruption, we'll work on weeknights between the hours of 8pm and 6am, when there are fewer vehicles on the road. During the day we will keep the road open as usual.

Closure information

The A259 will be closed in stages between the Brenzett Roundabout and Camber Road, East Guldeford, weeknights from 8pm to 6am the following morning, starting on Monday 22 May and finishing on the morning of Saturday 5 August (excluding Friday 26 and Monday 29 May).

As we progress, we'll post information about where we're working on our webpage: nationalhighways.co.uk/se-maintenance, just look for A259 Brenzett to Rye resurfacing.

During the closures, a diversion will be in place going in both directions via B2075, Lydd Road and Camber Road.

For businesses and residents within the closure area only, access will be maintained. Please approach the closure point for an escort. This is for access only.

Please note that these works are subject to change due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
