THE CENTENERY 1985 BURSARY

During 1985 'the Town of Lydd celebrated the Centenary of the granting of its Charter.

As part of the celebrations the Town Council decided to create a living testimony to the achievements of the past, and to look to the future with confidence and hope.

To this end a Bursary has been established, to be awarded annually, which will provide the opportunity for a young person to participate in an enterprise or adventure of their own choosing, which will lift their horizons by extending their knowledge and experience.

A selection panel has been appointed consisting of two Councillors, two representatives of Youth Organisations and the Head of Southland's School .They will consider the applications submitted and at their discretion make the award.

The criteria sought are: (a) that proposals are well researched.
(b) that applicants benefit from the project.
(c) that they may impart some of their experience to others add that there will be some advantage to the community.

The Panel will be prepared to assist applicants if necessary. Contact be made in the first instance with the Town Clerk of Lydd Town Council. townclerk@lyddtowncouncil.gov.uk
